*This scholarship is intended for a Danville, VA resident, who will graduate in the spring of 2016 and is part of the Danville City or Pittsylvania County School District. The minimum GPA for this scholarship is a cumulative 3.0 through fall semester 2015. It is requirement for this scholarship consideration that the recipient has taken classes in high school that are preparatory in nature for the Business or IT fields. Deadline for scholarship submission is March 31, 2016. Candidates are asked to submit a one page summary of their qualifications, goals, and why they want and deserve the scholarship.

Terms and conditions

The Norhurst Scholarship recipient agrees to use the monies provided by Norhurst for the recipient's school tuition and fees and /or books/required reading material for classes pertaining to recipient's major or general study classes. Norhurst reserves the right to inquire or investigate how scholarship monies are appropriated. In the event of intentional misappropriations of Norhurst Scholarship monies, Norhurst has the right to revoke the scholarship and suspend any unused monies.

--The Norhurst Scholarship recipient must have graduated or be on-track to graduate high school. Recipient must also finish in the top half of your graduating class, achieve a minimum GPA of 2.75, and score 860 on the SAT or 16 on the ACT. NOTE: If the Norhurst Scholarship recipient attends a school or university that has a higher eligibility standard (than required by Norhurst) to attend that institution, the Norhurst Scholarship recipient must meet the minimum requirements of that institution and meet the designated institution's requirements in order to receive the Norhurst Scholarship monies.

--Unless noted otherwise, you must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, Thirteen years of age or older as of the date of entry to be considered for Norhurst scholarship awards. If the recipient is below the age of 18 when enrollment of the specified college/university takes place, Norhurst may list the recipient as the parent/legal guardian as the recipient of the scholarship in accordance with the law and specific university/college policy. Norhurst will comply with the recipient school's regulations with regards to the release and dispersion of funds.

--You must provide your mailing address on the application so that we can send you paperwork to complete if you are selected as a scholarship recipient. The potential recipient must agree and perform an in-person interview, if requested, by the Norhurst Board of Directors or any of the executives of Norhurst in direct correlation to the discussion of granting of the Norhurst Scholarship. If requested, the potential recipient may also be required to prove their GPA via written transcript from the attendee's high school and/or a written recommendation from a teacher at the potential recipient's high school.

--To be awarded a scholarship, a recipient must enroll within 12 months of scholarship grant, at an accredited college or university located in the United States. Scholarships proceeds will be remitted to that school during the summer before the student attends, or the end of the first calendar year the student is enrolled. The summer before the recipient attends the college or university, they will need to complete a Payment Form that says which school they will be attending, and specifically where at the school to send the award payment. If this form is not completed, the award will not be disbursed, and the recipient may forfeit the award.

--By applying for a scholarship, applicant grants Norhurst permission to post their name on Norhurst or in other marketing communications in the event they are awarded the scholarship. Scholarship recipients will be required to submit a current photo and submit a publicity release granting Norhurst permission to use their photo on Norhurst and in other marketing communications.

--In order to ensure a fair and equitable selection process, Norhurst may retain the services of a third-party scholarship administrator to select and notify scholarship recipients, to verify recipient information, and to remit scholarship proceeds to an accredited university or college. Norhurst and/or its designated third-party scholarship-selection service have sole discretion of selecting scholarship recipients.

--The Norhurst Scholarship is a non-renewable scholarship unless specifically stated as such in writing by an officer of Norhurst Inc. Norhurst reserves the right to change the scholarship programs at any time, including available scholarships, deadlines, requirements, award amounts or other program details.

--Your information is safe and kept private. The Norhurst Privacy Policy applies to all Norhurst scholarships. See eligibility requirements for each scholarship for more details.

-- The Norhurst Scholarship recipient is solely responsible for reporting the proceeds from the Norhurst Scholarship Fund to the school and any other entity/organization/government body/institution that is entitled to this knowledge. Norhurst will comply with all state laws and the recipient school's regulations with regards to the release and dispersion of funds.

Norhurst reserves the right to increase the minimum standards for this and any other Norhurst Scholarship Award awarded by Norhurst Inc.
